The Appomattox Rebels won their first game of the 1969 football season as they downed the Chatham Cavaliers 36-2 last Friday night in a District IV game at Appomattox. The win evened Appomattox's record at 1-1.

The Rebels scored once in the first quarter, once in the third quarter and three times in the last quarter as they moved the ball at will in the last half even though penalties halted two touchdowns.

Appomattox scored quick in the quarter as Mike McCormick took the opening kickoff on his own 20 and returned it 35 yards to the Chatham 45. Four played later Steve Wilson, Rebel quarterback, rolled out and scored on a seven yard run for the Rebels. Plicky Williams had a run of 33 on one of the plays to set up the TD. The point after touchdown failed with 10:10 left in the quarter it was 6-0 and remained that way at halftime.

In the third quarter after Appomattox took a Chatham punt and had the ball on their own 43, Mike McCormick took a handoff on the first play from scrimmage and went 57 yards for the score to make it 12-0 with 6:45 left in the third quarter.

Plicky Williams scored the next Rebel touchdown from 42 yards out and Wilson added the extra point as Appomattox covered 77 yards in eight plays to make it 20-2. Chatham picked up the two points when Williams was tackled by Larry Wilson in his own end zone.

Hal Chambers made it 26-2 when he picked off a reflected Chatham pass and carried it 30 yards for the touchdown. Wilson threw to Sammy Page for the extra point and a 28-2 lead. With 1:19 left in the game Appomattox scored again as Steve Wilson hit end Sammy Page with a 16 yard scoring pass in which Page made a beautiful catch to make it 34-2 and William's run for the extra point made it 36-2. Lee Conner set the TD up with a 35 yard run as they covered 55 yards in three plays.

The offense showed Mike McCormick gaining 109 yards on 12 carries. He had a 90 yard touchdown run called because of a offsides. Plicky Williams rushed for 72 yards on seven carries. Steve Wilson had 47 yards on 10 carries and had a 66 yard touchdown run nullified because of a clipping penalty and Lee Conner had 46 on five carries. Wilson completed three of nine passes for 42 and had two other completions totaling 30 yards that was offset on penalties and would have been first downs and two more chances to score. Appomattox had 151 on punt and kickoff returns piled up by Williams, Wilson and McCormick.

The defense for Appomattox held Chatham to 20 yards net rushing and five yards passing. They allowed only two first downs and one of them came on a 15 yard penalty. Don Conner, Curtis Eagle, Steve Lawson, Billy Guthrie, Chambers, Wilson, Williams and Steve Almond all played good on defense. The whole line deserves credit as there were many tackles where four or five Rebels were piled up because Chatham ran mostly up the middle.

Ronnie Carter and Thomas Mitchell supplied the offense for Chatham. A lot of the yards they gained was lost elsewhere. The longest gain for Chatham at one time was a five yard run in the second quarter and one in the third.

End Paul Carter and tackle Kenneth Beale, along with Walter Luck, a linebacker, supplied most of the defensive punch for Chatham.

Chatham had about 125 yards on kickoff returns handled mostly by Ronnie Carter and Sammy Carter.

The Rebels take on Randolph -Henry Friday night at home in a non-district game but should be a thriller, for there is always a lot of get-up when these two teams meet.

Sherwill 4-H Club

The August meeting of the Sherwill 4-H Club was a family picnic held recently at Holiday Lake. A most impressive vesper service was put on by Jane Garrette and Carolyn Giles, assisted by Paxine Fleming, Mary Carter Feagans, Terry Coffey and Sam Jones.

A brief business meeting was held and the Nominating Committee was named consisting of Paxine Fleming, Layton Evans, Bonnie Tabor and David Cardwell. The election and installation of incoming officers will take place at the September meeting.

The entire program was a "Summer Round-up". A $75.00 check was presented as an award from the Virginia State Grand Organization to the club as winner in the State Scrapbook Contest showing good public relations. Kathy Jones reported on Jane Garrette's Home Management Workshop which was held on two evenings in Jane's home. Paxine Fleming reported on the 4-H Club Congress held at V.P.I. in June. Ann Muse Evans reported on the 4-H Club Congress held at V.P. Junior 4-H Camp at West Central Educational Center at Smith Mountain and Mary Carter Feagans talked about the Junior Leaders from our club who helped with the camp. They were Jane Garrette, Carolyn Giles, Mary Carter Feagans and Thomas Walker Evans. The Horse Shows of the summer were reported on by Debbie Glass. Carolyn Giles reported on the tour made by the club members and their guests of Lane Furniture Company in Altavista and the picnic held afterwards. Terry Coffey reported on the Photography Workshop that he held in his home with eight 4-H members attending and the tour of WLVA where the group was joined by Puse Zbotso of India, the IFYE who was a guest of the Extension Service in Campbell County and his host, Sam Jones. Jane Garrette spoke of the four 4-H Exchange members from New York State, one of whom stayed in her home and one in the home of another Sherwill 4-H'er, Thomas Walker Evans. Conservation Camp at Camp Farrar at Virginia Beach was reported on by Glenn Giles. This camp was also attended by Carolyn Giles and Terry Coffey. Dairy Month was explained by James Hancock III in which contest his poster was a county winner. Sam Jones introduced his county-wide safety survey which has to do with important telephone numbers. Jane Garrette told about the new All-Stars of our club, who are Bonnie Tabor, Jane Garrette, Thomas Walker Evans and Sam Jones. She also reported on the Banquet for the new All-Stars of West Central District (16 counties) and the All Star week end at West Central Educational Center at Smith Mountain.

Cheerleaders For "Mites"

They're right at the 30 yard line, and these lively cheerleaders for the "Mites" (9-10 year old football team) were right in there Saturday evening cheering the Mites on to a 34-0 victory over Brookneal. Cheerleading captain is Lynn Reynolds (center foreground) with the nine others filling out a traditional "V" for victory. Beginning at the far left: Teresa Harris, Nadine Bugg, Pam Guill, Kay Guilly, Conner Woodson, Rhonda Gail Smith, Susan Godsey, DeAnne Wooten and Jan Stanley.

Terry Coffey read a "Thank You" note from Mrs. Onyx Metz President of Concord Garden Club, in appreciation for a program on the United States Flag put on by Mrs. Hunter P. Evans and Terry Coffey in July. Sam Jones introduced the IFYE from India who spoke briefly about his country and his appreciation of his experiences in this country.

The top highlight for our club were the two State Achievement Winners who will go to Chicago this fall. They are Paxine Fleming on Bread and Layton Evans on Conservation. Bonnie Tabor was one of the state's best in Electricity and won a trip to Electric Congress in Roanoke in August.
